

4

Cs

Counselling and education

- Client-centred counselling prevents spread of infection
- Reduces risk for infection and re-infection.
- Provides information on potential complications
- Strategies to change risky sexual behaviours.

Condom promotion

- Consistent and correct use of condoms
- Develop skills for negotiating condom use.

Compliance with treatment

- Educate clients about following and completing treatment regimens
- Identify potential barriers to adherence and
- Strategies to overcome these barriers.

Contacting partners

- Treatment of partners prevents the further spread of the infection and re-infection.
- Notification and encouragement partners to seek appropriate care

National Lutheran Health & Medical Board
“Martin Luther Bhavan”
95, Purasawalkam High Road
Chennai—600 010

